January Summary: January was a “light” month for Kiwanis activities. Thanks to Herman Friess for organizing a welcome home advertisement in the Early Bird for our returning National Guard Unit, from our club and other clubs in Barron County communities.

January Meeting Notes (These are NOT official minutes): The following topics were discussed at the February Board and General Club meeting: Secretary’s report was read and approved. The treasurer’s report was presented and accepted. An interclub was arranged for the Key Club meeting on Friday. The Farm-City banquet is March 15; Doug Kucko will keep us up-to-date as he gets details. The Club was asked if they are interested in providing a beer/wine concession for Business After Five; general consensus was no; Teresa will confirm Patricia Brinkman’s visit next week.

Web Site Fundraiser

We still need almost half of the $680 required to start our Kiwanis Website. Teresa is collecting pledges: no need to pay until we have enough pledges to go ahead with the project. Please consider making a personal pledge and/or soliciting pledges from your employer or other local businesses with whom you have a relationship. Contact Teresa with questions or pledges.

Upcoming Opportunities

To Participate, Serve, and Give

February 10: Patricia Brinkman, former District Governor will be speaking at our regular weekly meeting. Ms. Brinkman is very involved and excited about Kiwanis, so this promises to be an interesting program, and we’d like to have good attendance for her visit.

February 23 or March 9: Key Club will be serving at Community Connection Lunch Box. They could use adult volunteers, as their advisor is unable to leave work to supervise. Once we get a firm date, we will be looking for volunteers to assist; food donations may be needed as well.

Friday, March 19: The president of Kiwanis International will be in Eau Claire. Let’s have a group from our club attend this event.

April 17, 2010: Applebee’s Pancake Breakfast Fundraiser

Kids from Wisconsin! The concert has been moved from our “traditional” Wednesday evening, so be sure to mark your calendar with the revised date, July 28, 2010.

National Convention: June 23-26, Las Vegas. Please let Teresa know if you are interested.

InterClub Summary

If your group has enough participants, feel free to schedule your InterClub visit anytime! Let Teresa know if you’d like to sign up for an additional group.
